II. Treasurer's Report - Budget

Lisa Stenfort

Fundraising Update:

Class Donations:

- Drama/Theater/Arts department raised over $3300 in class donations from back to school night, which far surpassed previous years.
- Instrumental Music: goal not met yet, budget $2500, we have $1380 so far

Rummage Sale

Susie Woodford

Rummage sale huge success, raised $14k compared to last year's highest amount of $10,500

Crab Feed: need more helpers to run Crab Feed and Silent Auction. We made almost $20,000 last year. Saturday, February 11 fundraiser for all performing arts

Stampede 5k: date still pending, waiting for permits from the City of San Jose to close roads. Stampede last year made $11,000

Mattress Fundraiser: October 29 mattress fundraiser in cafeteria up to 50% off of retail. If we sell 100 mattresses can get $16k. 1:10 people looking for new mattress, need help getting the word out.

See's Candy fundraising in November

Marching band fundraising is only at about 50% now. People have pledged and so we expect it to come in.

III. Operations

Randi Adams

Operations: semi, trailer and flatbed
PAPA garage, want to put shelving in
Maintenance record being created for trailers

IV. Home and School

Ann Auld

- 1) Accountant wants to separate out Sports Boosters
- 2) Leigh has only had two bond measures in 54 years. Bond will help pay to get buildings up to code and pay for the air conditioning.
- 3) Need to get volunteers to help get the word out so that people know that they can vote on this. There's a Facebook page and website

Stacey Taylor ask members if they approve or take any offense to information being sent to members regarding the bond. There were no rejections.

V. Drama/Theater Arts

Bryan Ringsted

Drama Haunted House

90 students

30 techs

Need parent volunteers for helping out with the haunted house, especially if they have younger children that will be going through the haunted house. This will discussed at the next meeting.

September 24 will need parent volunteers to help with building the haunted house.
